winning because their dashing attack smashes the defenses of the weaker clubs. Yesterday the Phils hit Barnes hard enough to win two games. The superbo outfield work of the Glants and the fact that Barnes steadled in the tight places held the Phils down. They tagged Barnes hard in every inning, had men on the bases during almost every stage of the combat enjoyed pretty fair pitching and then broke in the fourth and fifth innings and handed the game to the Glants, principally on instantaneous families of ground balls, and wild heaves. A throw from the citield was allowed to go unmolested to the standing of Glassing decided the structile.

The Long Island Kennel Club has ispecially with the premium list for the annual show to be held at the Gravesend race-track on Memorial Lay, May 30. In this games quite important this season.

Harry Prisch won the Metropolitan three-cursiion billiard championship last night at John Doly's Academy when he defeated Henry Frantzen in the final night's play for the title by a score of 51 to 36. The score for the two nights' play was 100 to 86 in favor of Frisch.

The freshmen of the School of Arts, won the interclass meet at Fordhain with a score of M points. The medical seniors were second and the seniors of the arts school third. Joe Tahasch of the senior medical class was the individual star with two firsts and two thirds.

J. Victor Onativia, a prominent squash tennis player, won a hard carned victory over R. G. Coburn in the final round of the Class A handless fourney at the Harvard Club. The match went five games, with Onativia showing the hetter condition and making scod use of his hard smaahing in the final came. The score was 16—10, 8—15, 16—9, 3—15, 15—4.

Oscar Chajes, New York State chess champion, defeated D. Januwski, chess champion of France, in their match of seven games up by winning the twenty-second game of the match played at the Manhattan Chess Club. The source was seven games won by Chajes, five won by Janowski and ten drawn.

Whether or not this is true, the Brooklyn magnate has just cause to protect his own interests. Ebbets invited neveral hundred sailors and navai reserves to be his guests at the opening game in Brooklyn between the Robins and Giants. He ilso invited soldiers stationed at Fort Hamilton to see the game.

When the jackles arrived at the ball park they were given the choicest eats in the upper tier and told to make themselves at home; and they needed no second invitation. They soon proved that in matters of common courtesy and discipline they are sadly lacking.

Hugh Duffy, Harvard baseball coach, stands sixth in the list of the champion sluggers for all time, instead of first, as erroneously stated. Jack O'Neill of the Browns hit .492 in 1887. Other leading batamen that mem-erable year were Pete Browning of Louisville, .471; Denny Lyons of the Athletics, .469; R. Carruthers of the Browns, .459, and Al Maul of the Athetics, 450. Duffy's best mark, 438, was made in 1894 with Boston.
